

March 29, 2010

Three managers have joined Salem-Keizer Transit (Cherriots).

Sue Quick, Operations Manager, comes to Salem from Lane Transit in Eugene, Oregon, where she served as Transit Services Manager. She is a standing member of the Bus Safety and Bus Operator Distraction working group for APTA and the Washington State Transit Associations' Operations group. She has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Business Administration. She was awarded the Dan Reichard Scholarship in conjunction with the American Public Transportation Foundation. She is a member of the Board of Directors, Luke Center for Catalytic Leadership.

Gregg Thompson, Maintenance Manager, has been in the transit industry for over 15 years most recently with MV Transportation in Lawrence, Kansas, serving in various capacities including Director of Maintenance. He began his career as a utility helper at Tri-Met in Portland, Oregon. He is currently pursuing a bachelor's degree from the University of Phoenix.

Jared Choc comes from Helena, Montana, where he was the Manager of Servicing Support for the Student Assistance Foundation. His work experience also includes working for the State of Montana and Adams County, Washington as a Systems Administrator. Jared will manage the newly created Strategic Planning & Technology Services (SPTS) department. He has an MBA and a degree in psychology from the University of Montana.